Bellevue High School

Foreword

Here is a "Scrapbook of Memories." Symbolic of this theme is the use of the seal of BHS on the Comet cover. In the "Scrapbook," informality is the trend in both words and pictures. With these we have recorded the highlights of the year. We hope this book will recall the knowledge acquired, the activities participated in, and the friendships enjoyed during the school year of 1953-54.

"Whose homeroom collected enough tax stamps to earn a popcorn treat?"

Collecting tax stamps was one method which the Student Council employed to earn money during the year. This money was used to improve the stage lighting. The income from the sale of small fire extinguishers purchased a "whirlpool bath". This "whirlpool bath" is to be available both to the school and to the local hospital. The Student Council also successfully took charge of the annual Homecoming events.

At the beginning of the year each homeroom elected a member to represent it at the Council meeting every Wednesday. These members have helped to decide upon and carry out the projects: J. Lepley, President; D. Moyer, Vice-President; N. Yundt, Secretary; L. Ocker, Treasurer; B. Creech, Sergeant-at-Arms; M. Furlong, B. Palmer, M. Moran, E. Foos, S. Seel, K. Maikie, C. De Liberto, D. Class Song

We're leaving BHS, our realm of happiness,
We go now with a sigh.
But long will we recall our days at Bellevue High.
Our Alma Mater dear held friendships all so near,
But now we say goodbye.
God, guide us in our days away from Bellevue High.
To lead us forward, blue and white we chose.
We'll fight for freedom; our symbol is the rose.
"The higher we rise, the better the view,"
Our motto will see us through.
So, BHS, farewell, your praises we will tell,
As on to fame we fly.
The class of '54 is leaving Bellevue High.

Junior-Senior Prom

"The Cinderella story came true."

A wishing well, murals of the pretty maid, and a pumpkin coach brought to life the well-known tale of Cinderella at the Junior-Senior prom on April 30. The modern Cinderellas and their Prince Charmings danced to the music of Ernie Duffield and his orchestra from nine until midnight.

A terrace with its wishing well and stone path attracted much attention. At the back of the auditorium was Cinderella's pumpkin coach colored in red and silver. Above the orchestra was a giant clock pointing to the hour of midnight to remind the Cinderellas of their curfew.

Reigning over Cinderella's ball were Helen Foos, senior queen, and Joan Helber, junior queen.

The invitations and dance program committee was headed by Thelma Joseph and George Rudd. Publicity was handled by Pat Ellison and Clare Mills. Johnny Irons, emcee, was in charge of entertainment. Martha Palmer directed the refreshment committee. Obtaining the dance band was supervised by Dave Burke. Louise Foos was responsible for decorations.

Junior Play

"Men are like streetcars; if you miss one there's sure to be another along soon!" This was just one of the "gems" of the "art of a man-hunt" that sixteen year old Maudie divulged to her more naive girl friends during the Junior Class Play on November 20, 1953. The director of the play was Miss Erma Buffington, and the student directors were Nancy Boehler and Karen Hassinger.

The play was directed by Miss Elizabeth Foulk. She was assisted by Miss Erma Buffington. Molly Furlong and Daryl Knauss were the student directors.

"Manna From Heaven", in the form of fraudulent fifties, literally cluttered up the place May 13 and 14 when the Senior Class presented "Mr. Barry's Etchings."

Bruce Meyer portrayed Mr. Barry, the benevolent counterfeiter who gave away his "phondonies" to needy causes. Janet Koechley and Lloyd Adams were two legitimate crooks who tried to persuade Mr. Barry to join their gang. This scheme was brought to a halt when Johnny Lepley, as the Secret Service agent, intervened. Barry confessed to all, but the production was brought to an exciting climax when a Hollywood producer arrived and offered to produce the fabulous story on the screen.

Christmas Plays

"Not one, but two plays!"

On Dec. 18 the Speech classes presented their part of the annual Christmas program. Two plays had been rehearsed under the direction of Miss Esther Schachtele.

In "It Might Be St. Nick" Mr. Nicholas, played by Lloyd Adams, stopped by the Wyath home on Christmas Eve. In the course of his visit, he solved many of the family problems. Others in the cast were: Jean Swenson, Bill Monk, Bruce Meyer, Sally Harpster, DeLee Thompson, Maureen Moran, Sonia Mesnard, and Bob Hart. Sonia Strayer was student director.

Chronic disorders affected the younger members of the Weems family without warning in the second production "Almost An Angel." No one of them wanted to play the part of an angel in the church Christmas pageant. The cast included: Jan Koechley, Tony Straziuso, Wilma Geisler, Molly Furlong, Dave Vogel, Bill Gaertner, and Curtis Crews. The student director was Helen Foos.

Christmas Dance

"'Christmas in Heaven' might be the nearest you'll get to the Promised Land."

So stated an announcement advertising the Y-Teen Christmas Formal. The girls really worked to transform the BHS auditorium into a "dreamy" heaven. Dancing to the music of Rog Phillips' band was a treat which about a hundred couples enjoyed.

Santa Claus arrived and distributed humorous gifts to some of the couples. Mr. John Everson sang three Christmas songs, and Ed Roberts entertained with trumpet solos.

Roger Miller and DeLee Thompson reigned as King and Queen of Good Will during the evening.

Concert Band

"How do they manage to keep in step and play an instrument at the same time?"

The intricate formations and snappy step of the BHS Marching Band have proved fascinating to the spectators at the football games as they watched the half-time shows. Mr. Corbett, who is always looking for new things to keep the band on top, has just added a precision marching group called the "Indian Maids." They will march in front of the band at football games and parades. Doing fancy steps, they will help to entertain during the half at basketball games.

At the climax of the season, the NOL Band Festival was held in Bellevue with Willard, Bucyrus, Upper Sandusky, and Bellevue participating. In the afternoon parade Dick Heyman proudly led the BHS band down Main Street to the music of the ever popular "Darktown Strutter's Ball." The special features of the evening concert were "Finlandia" and "Stars and Stripes Forever." After the concert the visitors were invited to stay for a dance. Music was provided by the BHS Dance Band.

The yearly Symphonic Band Concert, presented on April 2, was an unmistakable success. This concert was heard by the largest and most receptive audience in attendance since Mr. Corbett has been director.

"Have you had your picture taken yet?"

This was an oft-repeated question during the year as the Comet Staff collected individual and group pictures for the Annual. It is the aim of the staff to present all the activities of the school in words and pictures.

Lay-cuts, write-ups, and paste-ups occupied the Wednesday meeting times throughout the year. As a result of the concentrated efforts of the business staff, about four hundred '54 annuals have been sold. The staff and adviser thank Miss Wright and Miss Wygant and her classes for their help.

"First with all the news."

Eight issues of six pages each were published this year by the Dial Staff. There is a hundred per-cent circulation for BHS students, as the cost of the paper is covered by proceeds from the annual magazine sale.

A "rotating system" of editors was used this year. A different group of staff members was in charge of each issue; this gave all staff members valuable experience.

The Dial received a "Superior" rating at the Journalism Convention held in Bowling Green. Competition included many of the large schools in northwestern Ohio. Another "first" this year was the selling of programs at basketball games. The cover designs and information were supplied by members of the Dial staff.

Thespians

"How many speeches do you have?"

Requirements for this club are based on participation in dramatics. The Junior Play, the Senior Play, and the Christmas plays offer opportunities for earning a membership. Both formal and informal initiations are conducted. The informal initiations provide fun for all, as the active members can dream up plenty of tasks for those joining the group.

"Act well your part; there all honor lies" is the motto of the National Thespians.

Officers for 1953-54 were: M. Furlong, President; P. Pasqualin, Vice-President; J. Benson, Secretary; D. Vogel, Treasurer.

Quill and Scroll

"Count the number of lines you have written."

This is the preliminary for applying for membership in the journalism honorary, Quill and Scroll. Writing and working on the school publications are essential for the aspirants. Scholastic rank in the upper third of the junior or senior class is also necessary. The members of Quill and Scroll are also members of the International Honorary Society for High School Journalism. "Clear and Forceful Writing" is the motto of the Society.

Initiation ceremonies were performed early in May for S. Strayer, S. Harpster, J. Swenson, Seniors; and J. Boyer, I. Irons, N. Taylor, and N. Yundt, Juniors.

State F.H.A. Convention. They were accompanied by Mrs. Shaffer, adviser, and Mrs. Warden, Club Mother. In May another field trip for the girls took them to Castalia where they witnessed and took part in a style show. Schools in Huron and Erie County participated.

Martha Palmer was Cherry Pie Contest winner for the second consecutive year.

Juniors and seniors in the group have had the opportunity to observe and to do practice teaching in the local schools. "College Night" was sponsored by the local F.T.A. Representatives from numerous colleges were in attendance to discuss their schools with parents and prospective students.

The F.T.A. group is sponsored by the Zeta Chapter of Delta Gamma. Miss Grace Kaiser is chairman of the advisers.

National Honor Society

"A surprise assembly was called the morning of April 8."

The purpose of the assembly was the initiation of fifteen members into the Alfred Ross Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service are the essentials for membership. The five members of the society who had been elected in their junior year stressed those four cardinal principles as their part in the program. Each year fifteen per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class are elected to the National Honor Society.

"Boys aren't the only ones who are athletes."

Girls at BHS participate in many different sports, also. This is evidenced by the activities of the Girls' Athletic Association. The requirements for joining the club is to earn eighty points. 250 points earn a large letter "B". The organization was responsible for the intra-mural games held at noon during the year. Not-to-be-forgotten events were the annual "Sports Days" here and away. These play days give the girls and their adviser, Mrs. Pendleton, a chance to meet other G.A.A. girls and advisers and to challenge them to some friendly games.

"Balanced Training" is the motto of the National Athletic Scholarship Society. To become eligible for election, a high school boy must have a major or two minor letters in a high school sport. He must also have maintained an above average grade in all subjects for the past three semesters. The athletes meeting these requirements are selected by the coaches under the supervision of the N.A.S.S. adviser, Mr. Lowell Shaffer.

Seniors John Lepley, Bob Baldwin, and Dick Moyer have been members for three years. Senior Brad Palmer and Juniors Jim Boyer and Dale Ledman were elected last year. The only new member, Bob Yoder, is a sophomore who earned his major in football.

Art Club

"Anyone interested in forming an Art Club?"

Nine students expressed a desire to sketch, draw, or paint; and another new club was added to the roster of extra-curricular activities at BHS. One of the service projects of the group was providing posters for the membership drive of the Community Concert

Association. Discussions at the meetings helped to develop better understanding and appreciation of art.

"Meeting of the A.O.A. tonight at 7:30." This mysterious announcement referred to the Ancient Order of Alchemists, a newly-formed club for those students interested in science. Membership was open to members of all classes. The performances of scientific experiments, lectures by outside speakers, and a ride in Mr. Shaffer's plane provided the program material. An interest in astronomy prompted a visit to the small observatory at Castalia and a longer field trip to the Perkins Observatory at Delaware, Ohio.

Homecoming Queen

"Election bulletin: Janet Koechley to reign as Homecoming Queen."

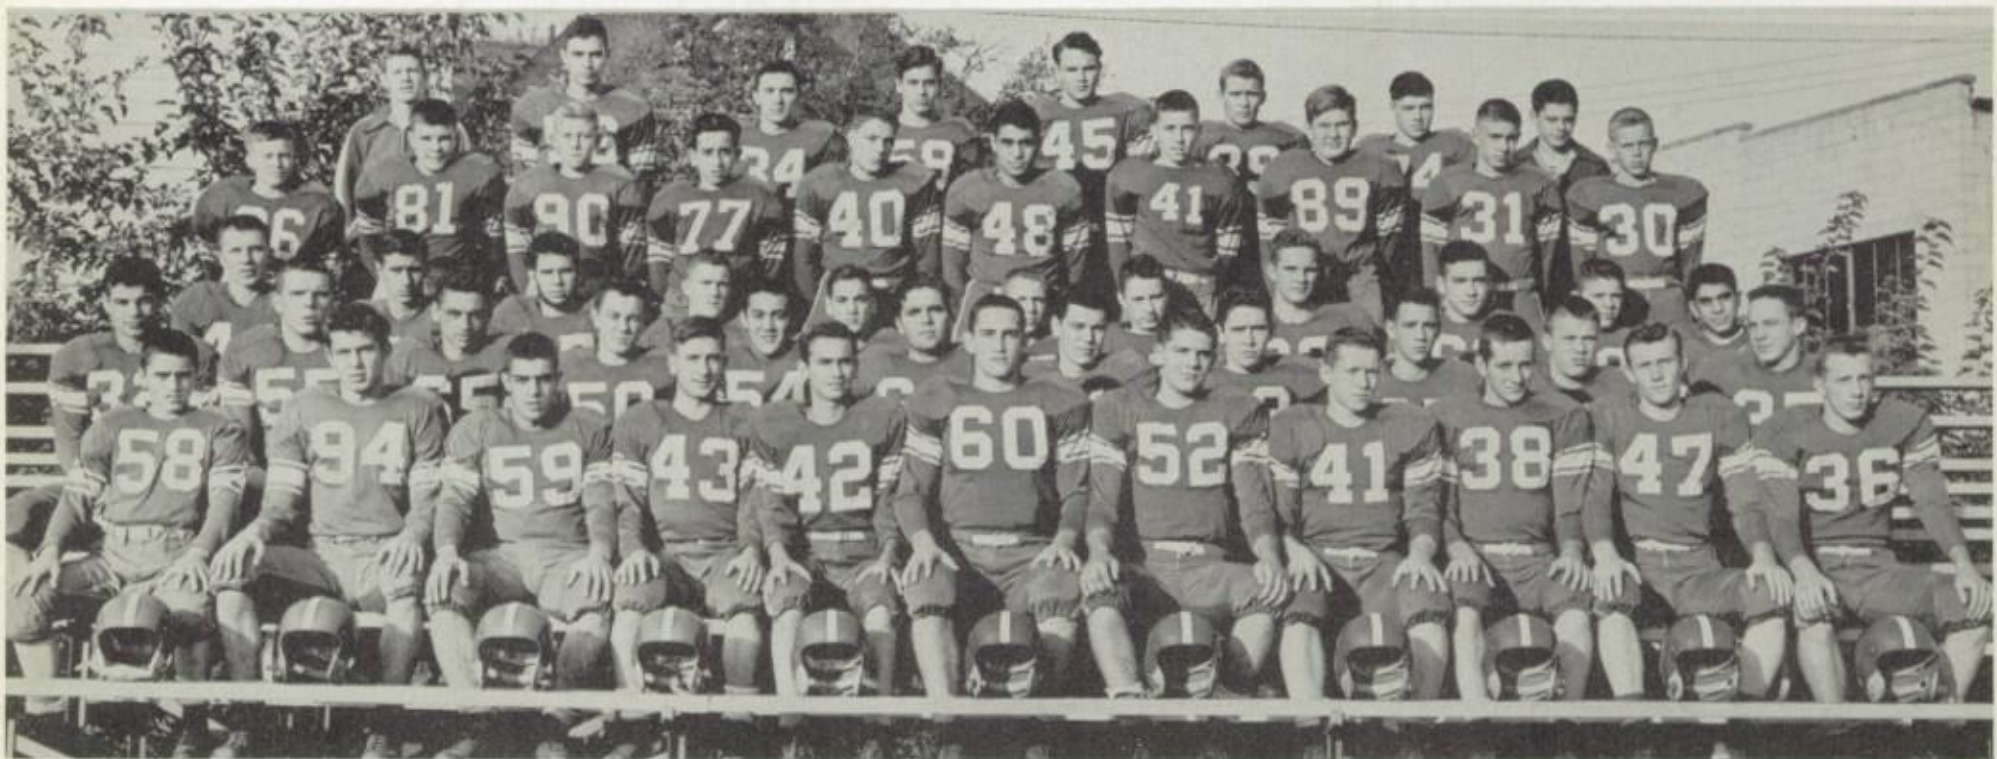

A huge crowd jammed the bleachers at Harmon Field on October 16 for the Homecoming game between Shelby and Bellevue. The crowning events which took place before the game were as interesting to some as the game itself. Arriving first in shiny convertibles were three smiling underclassmen attendants: Beverly Hart, freshman; Vicki Stoll, sophomore; and Nan Yundt, junior. They were quickly claimed by Barry Fiala, Bob Creech, and Larry Ocker, escorts. Next came Helen Foos and Hazel Bellamy, senior attendants, who were escorted by Jere Stephenson and Bob Baldwin.

At last! A fanfare was played by the Bellevue High Marching Band's trumpeteers, and her majesty Queen Janet Koechley came on to the field in the shiniest of all convertibles. Our 1953 queen was escorted by Roger Miller. Also in the car with Janet were Marygrace Burke, flower girl, and David Ruffing, crown bearer, who completed the royal party. Janet was crowned by Johnny Lepley, co-captain; and Bob Hart, co-captain, presented her with a large bouquet of mums.

After the ceremonies and a royal cheer led by the cheerleaders, the court retired to the sidelines to watch a thrilling game. Later the queen and her attendants, arrayed in shimmering formals, presided at a Homecoming Dance held in their honor. In keeping with tradition, the first dance of the evening was reserved for the Court. Janet and Roger began the dancing and then were joined by the attendants and their escorts.

BELLEVUE 30 — GIBSONBURG 13

In a wild but thrilling ball game, the B.H.S. Squad trounced the Gibsonburg Golden Bears, 30-13, at Harmon Field on the balmy night of September 18. "Rapid Robert" Hart's sixty-three yard TD run highlighted the Redmen's scoring.

BELLEVUE 63 — CRESTLINE 6

The Redmen won their first NOL encounter on September 25 by blasting the Crestline Bulldogs, 63-6, at Crestline. The locals took turns at scoring against the undersized team as Hart, Haynes, and Lepley each scored twice. This was Bellevue's final game with Crestline who has withdrawn from the NOL.

BELLEVUE 20 — UPPER SANDUSKY 14

The BHS gridders made it three in a row on October 2 by upsetting Upper Sandusky, 20-14, in the first really tough game of the season. Again Hart scored twice while John Lepley hit pay dirt once. The Rams failed to overcome a strong BHS lead in the second half.

BELLEVUE 40 — NORWALK 7

The Redmen footballers "snowed under" the hapless Norwalk Truckers by a score of 40-7 at Harmon Field on October 9. Bellevue's offensive punch was provided by Dick Moyer who racked up two TD's; and Eisenhower, Haynes, Lepley, and Roberts who each crossed the goal line once.

BELLEVUE 10 — SHELBY 14

The Redmen came out on the short end of a 14-10 battle with Shelby on October 16.

The Whippets put the Homecoming thriller on ice in the waning moments of the game with a thirty-nine yard touchdown run. Although they lost the contest, the B.H.S. squad played one of the best football games of their career. John Lepley proved his ability by scoring all the points for the Redmen.

BELLEVUE 26 — GALION 0

The Redmen returned to the winning way by defeating Galion, 26-0, on October 26 at Galion. Moyer, Beckman, Lepley, and Roberts each scored for a total of twenty-one points in the fourth quarter.

BELLEVUE 21 — BUCYRUS 19

Dad's Night, October 30, found the BHS eleven victorious over Bucyrus, 21-19, in a well-fought battle. Ed Roberts switched to a back position and succeeded in scoring twice while Haynes crossed the goal line after catching a Lepley pass.

BELLEVUE 21 — WILLARD 0

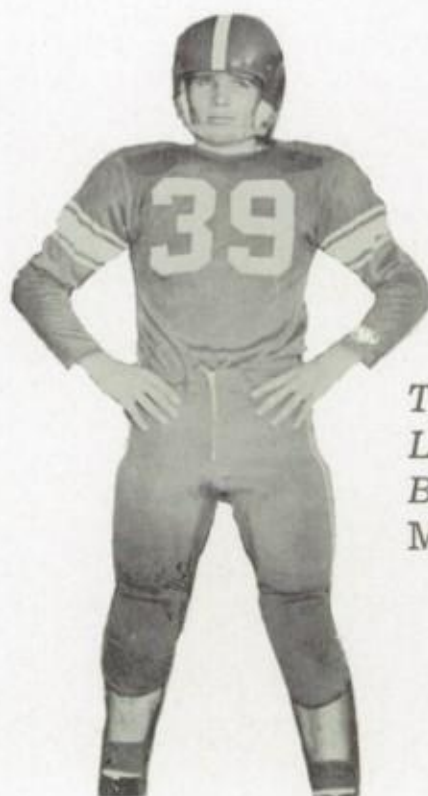

The Redmen rolled over Willard, 21-0, on November 6 on a windy, snow-swept Harmon Field. This gave them undisputed second place in the NOL. Eisenhower, Lepley, and Moyer added points to the scoring for Bellevue.

BELLEVUE 6 — PORT CLINTON 12

Friday the thirteenth proved unlucky for the 1953 BHS gridders as they fell before a spirited Port Clinton eleven. Although he had scored previously, Lepley's two-yard pass in the final minutes failed and thus provided the Porters with a victory.

Lepley, No. 38, races around end during the Shelby game.
Moyer, No. 97, evades Willard tackle.

The 1953-'54 basketball season is now but a memory of a most successful year basketballwise. The flashing Redmen were the best in the league as they won every league encounter on their schedule. Coach Ivan Wilhelm and his cagers were especially glad to have the NOL title to themselves this year. Jim Strayer tied Jim Windsor's previous individual scoring record of 32 points. The "Go-Go" boys won 16 of 17 season games, the only loss being to Ashland. The BHS floormen racked up 1226 points against 968 for the opponents.
